Memo to Media: Special Announcement

DATE CHANGE: THURSDAY, JANUARY 24TH (NOT JANUARY 15TH)

On Thursday, January 24th, the Harford Technical High School 'Schools for Schools' organization is sponsoring a "Day Without Desks" throughout the school day. The media is being invited to cover the event during the second period of the day – 9:15 till 10:30 a.m. 'Schools for Schools' is part of a larger group called "Invisible Children" the group links schools in the United States with schools in war-torn countries, with the U.S. school raising money and awareness about the disadvantaged school. The Harford Tech chapter has been paired with an all boys school in Uganda, Africa. "Day Without Desks" is a voluntary activity where members of the chapter sit on the floor during class time, identifying with the students in Uganda who have no desks at all. English teacher Lori Andrulonis is sponsor of the Harford Tech group and the activity will take place in her classroom.
