Home and Hospital Teaching

Pupil Personnel Services

BRINGING SCHOOL INTO THE HOME

A TEMPORARY PROGRAM OF INSTRUCTION when a child is unable to attend school because of

- extended illness
- physical impairment
- or emotional impairment

FOR THE STUDENT

- You will be given a minimum of six hours of instruction per week.
- Books will be provided by your school.
- At quarterly intervals, your progress will be assessed and become part of the school report card grade.

FOR THE PARENT

- There is no charge for this service.
- The service is provided for physically and/or emotionally impaired students.
- A physician or psychiatrist/psychologist must verify that your child is unable to attend school.
- Home teaching will begin at the time of verification of disability.

FOR THE SCHOOL

- The school will be contacted by the home teacher immediately after being assigned.
- The school coordinator of home teaching will gather the lessons, plans, books, etc., for the home teacher.
- Just prior to the end of each marking period, the school will receive grades from the home teacher.
- Home teaching grades will be averaged into the grades earned while the student was in school.

FOR THE HOME TEACHER

- The home teacher will contact the school to make arrangements to pick up books and materials.
- The home teacher will arrange with the student and her/his family a mutually agreed upon schedule and start date.
- The home teacher will be responsible for submitting progress reports to the school.
- The home teacher will notify the area Pupil Services office and the school of the termination of the home teaching program.
- The home teacher will return all books and materials to the school.

IF YOUR CHILD IS IN NEED OF HOME TEACHING SERVICE

- Obtain an application from the school or area Pupil Services office and complete the personal information section.
- Have your physician, psychiatrist or psychologist complete the medical section of the application.
- Sign the application.
- Return it to your child's school or the area Pupil Services office.
