

Face to Face High School Summer Learning Program

Program Description

The Harford County Public Schools (HCPS) Summer Learning Program provides high school students with expanded access to curricula aligned to the Maryland College Career Readiness Standards through the delivery of High School Assessment remediation and application on Bridge Plan for Academic Validation project(s). Students will sit for the appropriate HSA/PARCC/MISA exam(s) at the end of the summer program. Teachers will be hired to teach Algebra Data Analysis, English 10, Science, and Government in a traditional face-to-face setting that may include remediation and the completion of a Bridge Plan for Academic Validation if applicable.
