

December 23, 2008

President-elect Obama - Ensure Charters Have the Support They Deserve

On the campaign trail, President-elect Obama boldly called for doubling the federal aid for charter schools, signaling his strong support for charters as models of education reform. Now, as he works with Congress to craft an economic revitalization act with billions of dollars designated for school renovations and repairs, it is critical he continues to support charter schools. Sign our petition to President-elect Obama calling for fair access for charters to any funding appropriated for school construction.