Drug dog scan conducted at Bel Air High School

On Friday, March 30th, a routine, random drug dog scan was conducted in the Bel Air High School parking lot. The scan, done as part of the school system's commitment to keeping illicit drugs out of the schools, was accomplished using a canine under the direction of the Harford County Sheriff's Office.

The scan involved 23 cars being scanned by the dog. The 16-minute scan (12:47 p.m. to 1:03 p.m.) – supervised by four officers from the Bel Air Police Department, one drug dog, two school administrators, one administrative intern and the school system's Internal Investigator – did not result in any alerts for controlled dangerous substances or tobacco violations.
