

How can I use the camera on the Chromebook?

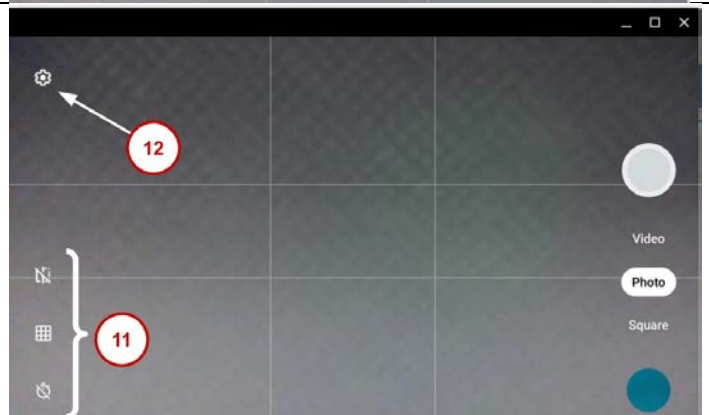

Description: In a few steps you can locate and use the camera to take photos and video.

If you have never used the camera before: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Expand your shelf by clicking on the circle on the left side.2. Click the search bar to expand the window.	 A screenshot of the Chrome OS shelf. A red arrow points to a small circle on the left side of the shelf. Another red arrow points to the search bar, which is expanded to show a search field with the text "Search your device, apps, web..." and a "G" icon. Below the search bar, several app icons are visible: Camera, Files, YouTube, Docs, and Gmail.
<ol style="list-style-type: none">3. Type the word camera in the search box.4. When you see the camera icon, click to open it.5. If you want to use the camera a lot, you can right click on it to pin it to your shelf.	 A screenshot of the search results for the word "camera". The search bar shows "camera" and the results include a camera icon labeled "Camera". A context menu is open over the camera icon, showing options: "Pin to shelf" and "App info". Red circles with numbers 3, 4, and 5 are overlaid on the search bar, the camera icon, and the "Pin to shelf" option respectively.
If you have used the camera before: <ol style="list-style-type: none">6. Click the circle launcher button.7. Click the up arrow to expand the shelf.	 A screenshot of the Chrome OS shelf. A red arrow points to a small circle on the left side of the shelf. Another red arrow points to an up arrow icon on the right side of the shelf. The search bar is expanded. Red circles with numbers 6 and 7 are overlaid on the circle launcher button and the up arrow icon respectively.
<ol style="list-style-type: none">8. Locate and click the camera icon to open it.	 A screenshot of the Chrome OS app shelf. The shelf is expanded to show various app icons: Docs, YouTube, Gmail, Chrome, Files, Slides, Sheets, Google Drive, Google Keep..., Google Chat, Google Photos, and Kamin - PDF a... The camera icon is circled in white. A red circle with the number 8 is overlaid on the camera icon.

9. On the right, select the type of media you want: video, normal photo, square photo.
10. Click the solid circle to take a picture or start a video.

11. On the bottom left turn on/off any of these features:
12. Click the gear to modify settings.

13. Choose the type of grid you want.
14. Choose the length of time for the automatic timer.

