Pegasus Springs Education Collective congratulates Education Ambassador Award recipient, Rebecca Gault

May 23, 2022 — Congratulations to Rebecca Gault, 9th grade English teacher in Bel Air, Maryland, who is a recipient of one of three Education Ambassador Awards from the Pegasus Springs Education Collective (PSEC). Dr. Gault was selected for this honor because she is an educator who inspires students and has the creativity and perseverance to make a transformational difference in the future of education. Such educators are continuous learners and role models for the education profession.

Dr. Gault will be receiving an all-expenses-paid trip to attend the PSEC Education Summit at the Coronado Springs Resort at Walt Disney World, June 26-29, and a $500 grant award for her classroom. At the Education Summit, she will be collaborating with other education leaders to learn from each other, share effective practices, and explore current issues in education. Dr. Gault will also be celebrated with the other recipients and attendees at a reception to celebrate the teaching profession at Walt Disney World's Epcot theme park.

Dr. Gault has earned a doctorate in Educational Administration and Leadership from Walden University, and she is Nationally Board Certified. She has taught middle and high school English for 31 years in Harford County Public Schools. In 2013, she was inducted into the National Teaching Hall of Fame. She has written multiple books and presented workshops throughout the nation for the past 20 years on issues regarding literacy and engagement for all students. She believes that the mindset, knowledge, and passion of teachers are critical in influencing students. Dr. Gault has created an inviting classroom with a “campfire” setting that allows students to be socially/emotionally engaged while achieving at their highest potential. Dr. Gault is an innovator with her instructional practices and is excited to use this award to further elevate the profession of teaching.
