The Growing Exceptional Teachers (GET) Program is a scholarship and recruitment program that provides financial assistance in the form of a student scholarship and, in lieu of a hiring incentive, to Harford County Public Schools (HCPS) high school graduating seniors selected to participate in the program. The purpose of providing this financial assistance is to allow program participants to complete their undergraduate degree in a high-needs area of teacher education, with the ultimate goal of receiving their teacher certification and returning to work as a public school teacher right here in Harford County.

Twenty-five (25) $6,000 scholarships are awarded to HCPS graduating seniors planning to attend college and attain their teacher certification in one of the following “critical shortage areas” identified by the Maryland State Department of Education and HCPS: English; Mathematics; Professional and Technical Education; Science; Special Education; Technology Education; World Language; and School Psychology. TEACHER OF THE YEAR
Elizabeth White, Social Studies teacher at Harford Technical High School with 12 years of teaching experience for Harford County Public Schools (HCPS), was named the 2020 HCPS Teacher of the Year during a surprise announcement at the 26th Annual, and first ever virtual, Harford County Teacher of the Year Event. The event was hosted for over 200 invited guests.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. Sean Bulson, made the announcement to invited guests from all over the county, including elected officials, school administrators, educators, students, family, friends, and community sponsors.

Mrs. White began her career with Harford County Public Schools in 2009 at Edgewood High School, and currently teaches at Harford Technical High School. She was the co-winner of an HCPS curriculum award in 2015 and is currently working towards National Board certification. She is dedicated to her school community through her work with the Student Government Association at Harford Technical High School and has coached students, mentored future teachers, and served as a member of the Maryland Environmental Literacy Partnership.

Mrs. White has also served the Social Studies and Technology offices to provide professional development and in the creation of new curricula and assessments.

Mrs. White earned a Bachelor of Science in History with a concentration in Secondary Education from Towson University in 2008, and a Masters in Instructional Leadership and Professional Development in 2009. Mrs. White was nominated for Harford County’s Teacher of the Year by colleague Amanda Roberts, a Harford County Public Schools 2018 Teacher of the Year finalist.

Mrs. White received a free lease of a brand new 2020 Nissan Rogue for one year courtesy of Jones Junction, a Dell laptop, a watch from Saxon’s Diamond Centers, a big-screen TV from NTA Life, and a custom ring from Jostens. In addition, she was awarded multiple gift certificates, local merchant gift cards, and $1,200 from HAR-CO Credit Union, which was provided to all five finalists.

“Beth teaches primarily history. This subject is usually not the most exciting to a typical high school student, but Beth creates such authentic and engaging lessons that students cannot help but be interested in what they’re learning,” said nominator, Amanda Roberts. “Beth is a far cry away from your typical history lecturer. She not only teaches them rich history content, but also academic and life skills that they can apply in a multitude of circumstances.”

Enthusiastic support for her nomination came from Mr. Joe Collins, principal of Harford Technical High School.

“Mrs. White is an expert in her content area, a master teacher, a champion of using technology to maximize learning and a devoted sponsor of Harford Tech’s Student Government Association,” said Mr. Collins. “She represents the high instructional expectations of Harford Tech and HCPS and is a role model of someone who loves what she does and expresses it every day in her classroom.”

The operating budget for Harford County Public Schools is a constant, ever-changing process. Many members of the Harford County community take part in shaping the budget before it is finalized in June.

Beginning in the Fall, the Superintendent works to develop a proposed operating budget for the following fiscal year. The Superintendent meets with senior staff members within the organization, holds discussions with targeted focus groups, and accepts input from the community through public input sessions and email submissions. In December/January, the Superintendent presents the budget to the Board of Education.

The Board of Education conducts public input sessions and continues to receive email submissions as they work to build on the budget before presenting it to the Harford County Executive in February/March.

Submit your thoughts on the proposed operating budget by emailing: budget@hcps.org.

The Harford County Executive typically holds public hearings, and engages with the community before finalizing the budget on or before June 15.
