

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF HARFORD COUNTY
INFORMATIONAL BOARD REPORT
BOARD CONSENT AGENDA
REQUEST TO WAIVE, IN PART, PROVISIONS OF
THE FOLLOWING BOARD POLICY:
22-0008-000 PUBLIC PARTICIPATION AT
BOARD OPEN MEETINGS OR PUBLIC HEARINGS

AUGUST 10, 2020

Background Information:

There are in effect states of emergency for the United States and for the State of Maryland, relating to the COVID-19 virus.

Discussion:

As a result of the states of emergency referred to above and resulting health risks, the Superintendent recommends that the Board waive, in part, the policy relating to public participation at Board open meetings or public hearings which is set forth below.

1. 22-0008-000 Public Participation at Board Open Meetings or Public Hearings

- a. This policy requires, in part, that public comment be permitted at board meetings. In-person public comment may not be logistically practical or possible for the Board meeting scheduled for August 10, 2020, due to the need to conduct a virtual meeting as a result of the states of emergency described above.
- b. This policy, at section 3.d., limits time for speakers to three minutes and for individuals representing groups to a total of five minutes per speaker. Due to the request for public comment to be submitted via e-mail in lieu of in-person verbal public comment, there is no word limit to the size of the written public comment.

Superintendent's Recommendation:

The Superintendent recommends that the Board waive, for the August 10, 2020, Board meeting, the requirement that the Board receive in-person public comment. The Superintendent recommends that, in substitution for in-person public comment, the Board receive public comment via e-mail as more fully described in the attached notice.

The Superintendent further recommends that the Board waive, for the August 10, 2020, Board meeting, the requirement that the Board allow five minutes for the reading of public comment received by an individual on behalf of a group. Rather, the Superintendent recommends that the reading of all public comment submitted via e-mail be limited to three minutes for individual public comment as well as comment received by an individual on behalf of a group.
