

BOARD OF EDUCATION OF HARFORD COUNTY

INFORMATIONAL REPORT

RECOMMENDATION ON

STUDENT JOURNALISM FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION
POLICY NO. 02-0052-000

CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES
POLICY NO. 04-0020-000

OCTOBER 10, 2016

Background Information:

The Board maintains a manual which sets forth the various policies of the Harford County Public Schools. The manual contains policies which are either required by federal and state law and regulation or which are, in the Board's judgment, necessary and appropriate in order for the school system to operate in a lawful, appropriate and effective manner. Included among such policies are those entitled:

04-0020-000 Controversial Issues

Additionally, a new policy is being presented to the Board for possible inclusion in the Board's manual titled:

02-0052-000 Student Journalism Freedom of Expression

Discussion:

1. Various sections of the Board Policy Manual are under revision. Included within the Instruction section is the following policy which was reviewed by the Board Policy Review Committee ("BPRC") at its September 26, 2016, meeting.

04-0020-000 Controversial Issues

The proposed revised policy includes revision as to substance and formatting to align with current policy. The definition of a controversial issue has been added for clarity. The statement of policy provides clear criteria for the discussion of a controversial issue within classroom instruction.

This policy was presented to the Board for decision on April 11, 2016. At that time, the Board requested that the policy be reviewed by the BPRC to address the issue of teacher expression of his/her personal opinion while teaching. New language has been added which permits such expression within the scope of specified criteria.

The Superintendent recommends that this proposed policy with the additional language described above, be approved by the Board. This recommendation is consistent with the recommendation of the BPRC.

2. Also reviewed by the BPRC at the September 26, 2016, meeting is the following proposed policy to be potentially included in the Student section of the Board policy manual.

02-0052-000 Student Journalism Freedom of Expression

This policy has been drafted as a result of the passing of Senate Bill 764 by the General Assembly of the State of Maryland. This law requires each local Board to adopt a written policy in order to implement the provisions of Senate Bill 764. A copy of Senate Bill 764 has been included for Board review.

The proposed policy establishes the purpose of the policy and includes definitions of a student journalist, school-sponsored media and a student media advisor. The statement of policy language comports with the requirements of the law.

The Superintendent recommends that this proposed policy be reviewed for possible approval at a future Board meeting. This recommendation is consistent with the recommendation of the BPRC.

2. Proposed revised policy 04-0020-000 entitled Controversial Issues.
3. Proposed new policy 02-0052-000 entitled Student Journalism Freedom of Expression.

Superintendent's Recommendation:

For the foregoing reasons, the Superintendent recommends that the Board review for approval at a subsequent Board meeting the following.

- Proposed revision of policy 04-0020-000 entitled Controversial Issues.
- Proposed new policy 02-0052-000 entitled Student Journalism Freedom of Expression.

POLICY TITLE: Controversial Issues
ADOPTION/EFFECTIVE DATE:	MOST RECENTLY AMENDED:	MOST RECENTLY REAFFIRMED: 5/6/2002
POLICY/PROCEDURE MANUAL SUMMARY CATEGORY: Instruction

As a public institution, the Harford County Public Schools has a responsibility to provide for the study of controversial issues. Many areas of study abound with vital issues which should be carefully studied and adequately discussed to develop student abilities in reflective and responsible thinking. Facing issues without prejudice and withholding judgments until facts have been gathered, considered, and conclusions drawn are valuable student outcomes of a free educational system. A free exchange of ideas is highly important in democratic living. Serious consideration of purposeful, carefully planned investigations of controversial issues relating to a course of study is important to the citizenship education of students.

In providing for the study and discussion of such issues, the school system must maintain a non-partisan, neutral position. Controversial issues shall be presented and discussed in secondary school classrooms. Such study shall be objective and scholarly, and teachers shall guard against giving their personal opinions until after students have had the opportunity to collect and assemble factual information on the subject, to interpret the data without prejudice, to reconsider assumptions and claims, and to reach personal conclusions. Students must be encouraged to search after truth as well as to form, express, and justify personal views in controversial issues.

The teacher has the right to express personal views regarding controversial issues which have been previously presented and discussed in class. Such points of view should be clearly identified as opinions. The teacher may also express his/her views to generate additional thought and discussion but should identify these opinions and their purposes.

Further, the teacher has the obligation to assist students in achieving a scholarly competence, to teach factual information and concepts upon which truth is based, to help students develop a respect for factual knowledge as the basis for critical thought, to avoid discussion of issues beyond the comprehension and maturity of students, to lead students to recognize that some problems and issues escape solution, and to demonstrate a deep respect for the dignity of each student and his/her right to express opinions without jeopardizing relationships with the teachers of the school.

I. Purpose

To establish criteria related to the teaching of controversial issues in the schools.

II. Definitions

Controversial issue means a subject or matter about which there are significant differences of opinion, and about which related discussion may create strong feelings among students and/or members of the community.

III. Statement of Policy

A controversial issue may be considered for secondary classroom instruction or discussion when the following criteria are met:

- A. The issue is related to the instructional goals of the course of study and commensurate with the level of maturity of the students.
- B. The controversial issue is presented in an impartial and objective manner and in an atmosphere that is free from bias and prejudice.
- C. The controversial issue, as presented, encourages open discussion and a respect for conflicting beliefs and opinions.
- D. Teachers may express their personal views regarding controversial issues, provided the teacher presents such views in accordance with the above criteria, and provided the teacher makes clear that the teacher's statement represents his/her personal opinion only.
