Darlington Elementary School Hosts Anniversary Celebration This Weekend

Media and community members invited to attend the event

This Sunday, April 28, Darlington Elementary School will host a celebration for its students, staff, and community members from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. to celebrate the 80th anniversary of the current building and honor 177 years of education in Darlington. This school is rich with county history and is a Harford County Public Schools gem.

Highlights of the event planned for that day:

- A near 100-year-old Darlington Living Legend will be recognized by County Executive Barry Glassman;
- Other Living Legends will share their experiences from the original Darlington Elementary School, now the Masonic Lodge, and moving to the new building. One experience will be about World War II air raid practices;
- The school's time capsule that includes original documents will be available;
- Student performances;
- And more!

Join us this Sunday as we celebrate Darlington Elementary with friends and family of the school!
