LISTEN AND LEARN TOUR DATES ANNOUNCED BY HARFORD COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS SUPERINTENDENT BULSON

Harford County Public Schools (HCPS) Superintendent Sean W. Bulson invites you to join him at one of nine locations throughout the county as he collects insights that will be used to determine the future of HCPS. The tour is your opportunity to meet Dr. Bulson and share your feedback at this pivotal moment for HCPS.

Dr. Bulson has met with community leaders outside of the school system as well as with each of his Leadership Team members and will finish meeting with the principals of all the county's 54 public schools prior to the start of the school year.

The September Listen and Learn Tour is an opportunity for anyone, with or without a direct connection to HCPS, to discuss the future of the school system and what it will mean for Harford County.

"I want to hear how you see HCPS now and your hopes for the future of our schools. Your participation during this phase of my entry plan is vital to creating a full picture and plan for the future," said Dr. Bulson.
